CHAPTER MCCCLIII.

A SUPPLEMENT to an act, entitled "An Act to alter and amend an Act, entitled "An Act for granting and disposing of the unappropriated lands within this state."

SECT. I. WHEREAS, in and by an act of General Assembly of this commonwealth, entitled "An Act to alter and amend an act of Assembly, entitled "An Act for granting and disposing of the unappropriated lands within this state,"* it is enacted and declared, that the price of the unappropriated lands within this state, which had been purchased, or should be purchased, by certain commissioners, for that purpose appointed, should be fixed at thirty pounds for every one hundred acres of the same land, and so in proportion for greater or less quantities thereof; and it was by the same act directed, that payments of the same price should be made before the issuing of the warrant for surveying each tract thereof, respectively, either in gold or silver money, or in the bills of this state, which be dated on the twentieth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, or in certain certificates, which are particularly described in another act of General Assembly of this commonwealth, entitled "An Act for opening the Land-Office, and for granting and disposing of the unappropriated lands within this state," that was published on the first day of April, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four: And whereas the Land-Office of this state, for the sale and distribution of the unappropriated lands aforesaid, within the purchase aforementioned, was, in and by the act last recited, directed to be on the first day of May, which was in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and the same was accordingly opened on that day:

*Ante. chap. 1111, and see the notes to chap. 1083, ante. page 102.

And whereas on or about the said first day of May, and afterwards, considerable quantities of the same lands were applied for, and warrants of survey issued to divers persons, but for and during 1788. many months last past, very few applications have been made for the purchase of said lands, and it is reasonable to suppose that the best and most valuable of the lands within the purchase so as aforesaid made of the Indian nations (not specially appropriated nor reserved) have been surveyed and set apart by virtue of warrants issued upon the applications aforesaid, and it is judged proper that the price of the residue of the lands within the said purchase (not specially appropriated nor reserved) should be reduced and accommodated, so as to induce persons to become purchasers thereof.

SECT. II. Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Representatives of the Freemen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same,

That from and after the first day of March next, the price of the unappropriated lands of this state, within the seventeen districts in the counties of Northumberland and Luzerne, being a part of the purchase last made of the Indian nations, as aforesaid, shall be twenty pounds for every hundred acres of the same, and no more, and so in proportion for greater or less quantities thereof, and that the same price shall be payable before the issuing of each warrant or survey, respectively, for any quantity thereof, in gold and silver money, at the rates after which the same are commonly current in this state, or in the bills of credit of this commonwealth, which are dated on the sixteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, or in certificates of this state, which have been, or shall be, issued according to law, and the bearers whereof are entitled to receive of the Treasurer of this commonwealth an annual interest thereon, after the rate of six per centum, half yearly, and no other satisfaction for the said price.

Provided always, That this act shall not extend to any lands which have been, or which shall be surveyed by virtue of any warrant heretofore issued, for the surveying of lands within the late purchase made by this commonwealth as aforesaid.
