the inhabitants of this last erected district to attend their elections at the county town, or at the town of Northumberland, notwithstanding.

Passed 7th September, 1789.—Recorded in Law Book No. III. page 525.

CHAPTER MCCCCXVII.

An ACT for separating Newberry township, in the county of York, from the fifth, and annexing the same to the first election district of that county, and to enable the freemen of Manahan, Warrington, Huntingdon, and Reading townships, to hold their general elections at the house of William Butt.

SECT. 1. WHEREAS it has been represented by the inhabitants of Newberry township, York county, that they labour under great inconveniences, in consequence of their being connected with the fifth election district, and praying to be detached from the same, and annexed to the first election district: And whereas it is represented by the freemen, inhabitants of Manahan, Warrington, Huntingdon, and Reading townships, being the residue of the fifth election district of York county, that they labour under inconveniences, in consequence of the place of holding their general elections being at the verge of the district, and praying they may be enabled to hold them at the house of William Butt, in Warrington township aforesaid: And whereas it appears just and reasonable, that the prayer of said petitioners should be granted:

Sect. 11. Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Representatives of the Freemen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this act, the township of Newberry, in the county of York aforesaid, shall be, and the same is from the berry, in the county of Lora accounts, and annexed to the district of hereby, separated from the fifth election district, and annexed to the district of hereby, separated from the fifth election district of Newberry shall York county first, and that the freemen of the said township of Newberry shall hold their annual elections at the court-house in the borough of York, in the said county.

Newberry separated

The election SECT. III. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That, of Manahan, Sec. where to from and after the passing of this act, the freemen, inhabitants of he held.

Monahan Warrington Huntingdon and Reading towards in the Sect. III. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That, Manahan, Warrington, Huntingdon, and Reading townships, in the county of York, shall hold their general elections at the house of William Butt, in Warrington township aforesaid, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Repeal of SECT. IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid. That so much of the act, entitled "A Supplement to the act, entitled "An Act to regulate the general elections of this commonwealth, and to prevent frauds therein," as obliges the freemen, inhabitants of Newberry township, in the county of York aforesaid, to hold their annual election in the fifth district of the same county, be, and the same is hereby, repealed and made void.

Passed 7th of September, 1789.—Recorded in Law Book No. III. page 526.