

dying to make and execute to the purchaser or purchasers of any such estate, a deed or deeds of conveyance for the same.

Sect. 2. (A similar provision for cases previously existing.)

Sect. 3. In all cases where any administrator or administrators, having sold lands by order of Orphans' Court, as aforesaid, shall die intestate, not having executed a conveyance thereof, and no person shall within three months thereafter, be appointed administrator "of the goods not administered on," or apply and be appointed to administer the estate of such administrator or administrators so dying as aforesaid, it shall thereupon be the duty of the Orphans' Court of the proper county, on petition to be presented by the purchaser, setting forth the original proceedings, under the order of the court, to direct the sheriff of the county, for the time being, to make and execute the necessary deed or deeds of conveyance to such petitioner.

Sect. 4. Every deed made in pursuance of, and agreeably to the provisions of this act, shall vest the property therein described, as fully and effectually, as if the same had been made by the person or persons who may hereafter sell, or heretofore have sold, any such estates circumstanced as aforesaid.

CHAPTER MDCX.

An ACT for dividing the fourth election district in Bedford county into two separate election districts.

WHEREAS the inhabitants of Quemahoning, Brothers valley, and Elk-lick townships, Turkey-foot, and Milford, in Bedford county, have by their petitions set forth, that they labour under great inconvenience on account of the distance they live from the place of holding their general elections: For remedy whereof,

(Now in Somerset county.)

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the freemen of the townships of Quemahoning, Brothers valley, and Elk-lick, in the county of Bedford, shall, from and after the passing of this act, meet, and hold their general elections at the house now occupied by Robert Philson, in the town of Berlin, in the township of Brothers valley, in the county aforesaid, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

An election district in Bedford county erected.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the townships of Turkey-foot and Milford, in Bedford county, shall, from and after the passing of this act, be erected into a separate election district, to be called the fifth district in the county aforesaid; and the freemen of said district, hereby erected, shall hold their general elections at the house now occupied by Jesse Brakins, in Turkey-foot township, in the county aforesaid.

Another in the same county.
