CHAPTER MDCCCCLXXXII.

An ACT to annex part of Bedford county to the county of Franklin.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all that part of Bedford county, commonly called the little Cove, and lying eastward of a line to begin in the Maryland line, near the Great Cove, or Tuscarora mountain, thence running north easterly along the summit of the said mountain, until it intersects the present line between Bedford and Franklin counties, shall, from and after the passing of this act, be annexed to the county of Franklin, and shall, until otherwise ordered by the Court of Quarter Sessions for the said county, be considered as part of Montgomery township; and the electors thereof shall meet at the same place, and hold their general elections with the electors of the township aforesaid.

(See vol. 1, pa. 330, vol. 3, pa. 264.)

Part of Bedford annexed to Franklin county.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the counties of Bedford and Franklin, or at least one of the said commissioners from each county, shall meet, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this act, and employ a skilful Surveyor to run and mark, in a plain and legible manner, a line, under their direction, agreeably to the provisions of this act; and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to make report of the course or courses, and distances of the said line, to the Courts of Quarter Sessions of their respective counties, there to remain of record, as the established line between said counties; and the expenses necessarily incurred in running and marking said line shall be paid out of the treasury of Franklin county, upon a warrant or warrants to be drawn by the commissioners of said county.

Provision for running and reporting the boundary line.

How the expense shall be defrayed.

Passed 29th March, 1798.—Recorded in Law Book No. VI. page 233.
