CHAPTER MMCXXVII.

A SUPPLEMENT to "An Act for offering compensation to the Pennsylvania Claimants of certain lands within the seventeen townships in the county of Luzerne, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

[Ante p. 362.]

WHEREAS by the third section of the act to which this is a supplement, it was provided and directed, that the claims and vouchers of the Pennsylvania Claimants shall be submitted to the Register-General and Comptroller-General, to issue and deliver to such claimants certain certificates therein specified, and the Comptroller-General was thereby authorized and directed to issue, alter and renew such certificates: And whereas, by the construction put upon

1800. the said section, it is doubted whether the Register-General is authorized to sign the said certificates, and it is manifestly proper that such a power should be given: Therefore,

[SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from henceforth the Register-General shall be, and he is hereby authorized and directed, to sign all certificates to be issued by the Comptroller-General, and Register-General, or either of them, in pursuance of the act to which this is a supplement; and no such certificate shall be lawful, or the evidence of any property or right in the holder, of it, or other person, unless signed by the said Register-General.]

[SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the said certificates, or any of them, shall be paid and delivered into the Land-Office, or otherwise discharged and redeemed, the same shall be delivered to the Comptroller-General, who shall immediately cancel the same by piercing holes through the said certificates, of at least an inch in diameter, by an instrument containing such device as the said Comptroller-General and Register-General shall agree upon; and the said certificates being so cancelled, shall be filed by the said Comptroller-General in his office, subject to the future disposition of the Legislature.]

SECT. III. Whereas by the fourth section of said act, the time limited for the Pennsylvania Claimants to file their applications, expired on the fourth day of October last, and owing to the calamity that prevailed in the city of Philadelphia, several citizens were prevented from presenting their claims: For remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Board of Property be, and they are hereby authorized to receive any applications that may be made by the Pennsylvania Claimants, on or before the first day of October next, on the same conditions and for the same purposes, as directed in the fourth section of said act: and all Pennsylvania Claimants filing their claims as above directed, and otherwise complying with the terms and stipulations of said act, shall be entitled to all the advantages and benefits contemplated by the said act, to which this is a supplement.

Passed 15th March, 1800.—Recorded in Law Book No. VII. page 176.
