CHAPTER MMCLXVII.

A SUPPLEMENT to the act, entitled "An Act for erecting part of the counties of Mifflin, Northumberland, Lycoming and Huntingdon, into a separate county." [Ante, page 407, chap. 2092.]

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor shall be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint three commissioners, for the purpose of running, marking and ascertaining, part of the lines between the counties of Huntingdon and Centre, according to the following boundaries; that is to say, Beginning at a point on the Tussey's mountain, three miles south-west of the line, which divided Mifflin and Huntingdon counties, thence by a direct line to the head of the south-west branch of Bald-eagle creek; and thence a direct line to the head waters of the Muchan-

Commissioners to be appointed to run part of the line between Huntingdon and Centre counties.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners shall mark, run and ascertain, part of the lines between the counties of Lycoming and Centre, beginning opposite to the mouth of Quinn's run, on the west branch of Susquehanna, thence a straight line to the mouth of Fishing creek where it empties into Bald-eagle creek, and thence to the north-east corner of Miles [late Haines] township, including Nittaney valley.

And, also, part of the line between Lycoming and Centre.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners, or any two of them, shall make different duplicate plots of the lines so run, and shall deposit one of each thereof, with the recorder of deeds of each county, bounded by the lines so run, in order to their being entered of record.

Duplicate plots to be made of the surveys and deposited in the offices of the respective counties.

SECT. IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the expenses attending the execution of the duties enjoined upon the commissioners as aforesaid appointed, shall be paid by the respective counties, bounded by the said lines, in equal proportion for those lines adjoining them, for which purpose, the county commissioners are hereby authorized to draw warrants on their respective treasurers, in favour of the said commissioners appointed to run the lines aforesaid.

The expense how to be defrayed.

SECT. V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whereas by the ninth section of the act, to which this is a supplement, the trustees of Centre county are authorized and directed to erect a court-house, prison and other buildings, for the safe keeping of the public records, on the public square in the town of Bellefont; but as it appears ineligible that a prison should be erected on the public square of the said town: Therefore the trustees of Centre county, are hereby authorized to erect a prison for said county, on any of the lots in the town of Bellefont, conveyed to them by James

Where the prison of Centre county may be erected.

1801. Dunlop, and James Harris, which may appear to them most suitable and best situated for the same.

Two of the trustees of Centre shall be a quorum to transact business.
 SECT. VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any two of the trustees of Centre county, shall in all cases be a quorum, to transact any business confided to them by this act, or by the act to which this is a supplement.

The first election district of Centre.
 SECT. VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the townships of Upper Bald-eagle and Centre, in Centre county, shall be a separate election district, to be called the first election district, and the electors thereof shall hold their elections at the place where the courts are held in the town of Bellefont: And that the townships of Franklin and Half-moon in said county, shall be an election district, to be called the second election district, and the electors thereof shall hold their elections at the house now occupied by Abraham Elder in Half-moon township aforesaid.

The second election district.

Passed 7th January, 1801.—Recorded in Law Book No. VII. page 202.

CHAPTER MMCLXVIII.

An ACT to erect a new election district in the county of Somerset, and for other purposes.

The sixth election district of Somerset.
 SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the township of Stoney-creek, and that part of Bedford township, annexed to the county of Somerset, shall be an election district, to be called the sixth district, and the electors thereof shall hold their general elections, at the house now occupied by John Roads, in said township of Stoney-creek.

The place of election of part of Quamahoning township altered.
 SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the electors residing within that part of Quamahoning township, in Somerset, county, who now elect at Beula, shall from and after the passing of this act, elect for the general election, at their former election district in Stoy's town, at the house appointed by a former law.

Passed 7th January, 1801.—Recorded in Law Book No. VII. page 204.
