

untill the rysing of the next generall assembly and twentie dayes after, and no Longer; and that these following Chapters & paragraphs shall be taken as Additionall Laws of the province and Territories:

Abrogated in 1693.

CHAPTER 192.

LAW REPEALING LAWS.

Chap: 192 That the 97 Law of Custom upon strong Liquors: the 98 of Custome upon hyds beavor and peltrie . . The 106 prohibiting provision imported to be exposed to sale befor the same had been five dayes in the province Or territories, The 152 about Buoys The 70 Law of Apealls to the Council, the 182 Concerning holding of provinciall Courts be and are hereby repealed:

CHAPTER 193.

LAW AMENDING LAWS.

Chap: 193 Be it enacted that in the 163d Law of registering the Names of free-men &c these words (and if anie person refuse or neglect to bring in the Names of his, her or their families to be registred as aforesaid within the time afore Limited, shall for the Said offence forfeit five shillings per head) be and are hereby repealed; And that these words in the 86 Chapter of Laws concerning the killing of wolves (and if anie Indian shall kill a wolfe and bring the head and bodie to a Justice of the peace, he shall have five shillings and the skin for his paines) And these words (Indians onlie excepted) be and are hereby repealed. That the reward therein Mentioned to be the same to an Indian, as is allowed to any other.

Amended chapter 86, 1683 & chapter 163, 1684; abrogated in 1693.