

CHAPTER CII.

[THE LAW AGAINST PERSONS JUDGING IN THEIR OWN CAUSE.

To the end that justice may have its free course in this province or territories:

[Section I.] Be it enacted by the Proprietary and Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the freemen of this Province and Territories in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That no member of a court of justice shall sit in judgment whilst his own cause is upon trial; and if an appeal shall at any time be made from the judgment of the court to the provincial judges, or to the governor and council.

[Section II.] It is hereby further enacted, That no judge or member of [such] council shall sit in judgment upon that appeal.]

Passed November 27, 1700; allowed to become a law by lapse of time, in accordance with the proprietary charter, having been considered by the Queen in Council, February 7, 1705-6, and not acted upon.

CHAPTER CIII.

[THE LAW ABOUT OFFICERS' FEES.

To prevent extortion in officers, and to reduce the table of fees to a greater certainty:

[Section I.] Be it enacted by the Proprietary and Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the freemen of this province and Territories in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That the clerks' fees shall be:
