CHAPTER CXXVI.

AN ACT AGAINST DRUNKENNESS AND DRINKING OF HEALTHS.

For the discouragement and punishment of drunkenness:

[Section I.] Be it enacted by John Evans, Esquire, by the Queen's royal approbation Lieutenant-Governor under William Penn, Esquire, absolute Proprietary and Governor-in-Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania and Territories, by and with the advice and consent of the freemen of the said Province in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That every person disordering or abusing him or herself with excessive drinking unto drunkenness, as also those who are instrumental thereto by imposing strong liquors, with drinking healths or otherwise to provoke the same; and every person suffering any such excess in their houses, being convicted thereof by one or more credible witnesses, shall, for the first offense pay five shillings, or suffer five days' imprisonment at hard labor; and for the second, and every offense after, ten shillings, or ten days' imprisonment as aforesaid.

Passed January 12, 1705-6. Allowed to become a law by lapse of time, in accordance with the proprietary charter, having been considered by the Queen in Council, October 24, 1709, and not acted upon. See Appendix II, Section III, supplied by the Act of Assembly passed March 30, 1779, Chapter 333.
