(Section III. P. L.) And whereas the real estates herein before described, which have been reserved, set apart, and appropriated by the supreme executive council for the purposes aforesaid, at the several valuations thereof respectively made by the supreme executive council, and the said real estates purchased as aforesaid, at the prices at which they were severally sold, do not, when considered and taken together, amount to more than the yearly value of one thousand three hundred and eighty-one pounds five shillings and seven pence half penny, computing wheat at the rate of ten shillings per bushel, and it is proper that the same estates and interests herein before enumerated and described, and every of them should be confirmed to the said trustees, their successors and assigns for the uses in the act afore recited, set forth and declared:

[Section I.] (Section IV. P. L.) Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Representatives of the Freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and by the authority of the same, That the several confiscated estates, lands, tenements and hereditaments, and rent charges, herein before enumerated and described, with their and every of their rights, members and appurtenances, are hereby, fully and absolutely vested in and confirmed unto the trustees of the University of the State of Pennsylvania, their successors and assigns, forever, and for no other use, intent or purpose whatsoever, saving and always reserving to all and every person and persons, bodies politic and corporate, his, her and their heirs and successors (other than the persons attainted or forfeiting the same, and all persons, and every person having or claiming anything in the premises under or to the use of any such forfeiting person, his, her or their heirs, executors or administrators) all such estates, rights, titles and interest, of, in, to and out of the premises or any of them as they or any of them had before the passing of this act or could or might have been had or enjoyed in case this act had not been made.

(Section IV. P.L.) [sic.] And whereas in and by the act aforesaid certain officers of the commonwealth and divers ministers of the gospel in respect of their offices and stations together with sundry other persons therein named and the successors of other such persons, to be elected and appointed in their room and stead respectively were constituted trustees of the same University, and although it was provided in case any of the same persons should remove out of this state that the office of such trustees should be thereby vacated, yet if any of the same persons should willingly absent himself from the meeting of the said trustees for the space of one year, no remedy is given and the business of the seminary may be thereby obstructed and it is reasonable and proper that such absence should be considered and deemed to be a vacating of the seat of such person at the board of trustees.

[Section II.] (Section V. P.L.) Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any of the trustees of the University of the State of Pennsylvania (not being a trustee in right of office or station) shall willingly be absent from the meetings of the board of said trustees for and during the space of [six months], the seat of such absenting trustees shall be deemed to be vacant and the residue of the said trustees or such of them as shall be regularly met not being fewer than eleven shall and may proceed to elect a successor to such absenting trustee as they would in case he had formally resigned his seat at the board of the said trustees of the said University.

(Section VI. P.L.) And whereas the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania have established a professorship in the same seminary for teaching the learned languages through the medium of the German tongue with one or more assistant teachers as may be requisite:

[Section III.] (Section VII. P.L.) Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the same professorship and the assistant or assistants aforesaid shall be continued in the said University to teach the learned languages through the medium of the German tongue as a part of the system of education carried on therein.
