

in Chester county, to John M'Dowell, in trust and for the use of this commonwealth, which said estate, by condition of the deed of trust, was to have been sold, either at public or private sale, in the course of twelve months, commencing from March, one thousand eight hundred. And whereas, The said Andrew Boyd hath, by his memorial to the legislature, prayed for an extension of the time limited for the sale of the property aforesaid, and as many misfortunes and peculiarly distressing circumstances have attended the said Andrew Boyd. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the time limited for the sale of the real estate of Andrew Boyd, late treasurer of Chester county, which was conveyed by said Boyd to John M'Dowell, in trust and for the use of this commonwealth, be, and the same is hereby, extended to the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and five.

Passed February 26, 1801.

CHAPTER MMCCIV.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF JOHN RENISON.

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the governor be, and he is hereby, authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, for the sum of four hundred and seventy-five dollars and ninety-five cents, in favor of John Renison, formerly an ensign in the seventh Pennsylvania regiment in the late revolutionary war, who has since become disabled and blind, to be paid out of the funds appropriated for the support of government.

Passed February 26, 1801.