CHAPTER MMCCXLII.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF MICHAEL COX.

Whereas, it hath been represented to the legislature, that a certain Joseph Terrance, purchased at public sale, of the agents of forfeited estates, one hundred and fifty-six acres and one half of an acre of land, with the appurtenances, situate in German township, in the county of Fayette, which had been confiscated to this commonwealth, as the estate of Anthony Yeldall, and which by deed poll, dated the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, was, under the hand of Thomas Mifflin, then governor, and the great seal of the said commonwealth, conveyed in fee-simple to the said Joseph Terrance, who, together with his wife, by indenture, conveyed the same to William Oliphant, who, together with his wife, conveyed the same to the said Michael Cox, who, on the thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand and eight hundred, was, in due form of law, evicted from the said tract of land, by a title paramount in a certain Edward Green: And whereas, by the laws of this commonwealth, the said Michael Cox is entitled to be paid out of the treasury of the state, the value of the said tract of land at the time of the said eviction. Therefore:

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by
