CHAPTER MMCCXLII.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF MICHAEL COX.

Whereas, it hath been represented to the legislature, that a certain Joseph Terrance, purchased at public sale, of the agents of forfeited estates, one hundred and fifty-six acres and one half of an acre of land, with the appurtenances, situate in German township, in the county of Fayette, which had been confiscated to this commonwealth, as the estate of Anthony Yeldall, and which by deed poll, dated the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, was, under the hand of Thomas Mifflin, then governor, and the great seal of the said commonwealth, conveyed in fee-simple to the said Joseph Terrance, who, together with his wife, by indenture, conveyed the same to William Oliphant, who, together with his wife, conveyed the same to the said Michael Cox, who, on the thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand and eight hundred, was, in due form of law, evicted from the said tract of land, by a title paramount in a certain Edward Green: And whereas, by the laws of this commonwealth, the said Michael Cox is entitled to be paid out of the treasury of the state, the value of the said tract of land at the time of the said eviction. Therefore:

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the court of common pleas, in and for the said county of Fayette, is hereby authorized and required, on the petition of the said Michael Cox, to award a writ of appraisement, directing the sheriff of the said county, to summon an inquest to appear and ascertain, on oath or affirmation, the value of the said tract of land, containing one hundred and fifty-six acres and one half of an acre, with the appurtenances, situate in German township, in the county aforesaid, at the time of the said eviction, and also the value of the mesne profits of the said tract, in the hands of the said Michael Cox, and to make a due return thereof; and the said court, if they approve of the same, shall certify all the proceedings had in pursuance of this act, to the governor, who shall thereupon deduct the mesne profits from the valuation of the said tract, and draw a warrant on the treasurer of the state for the remainder of the valuation, in favor of the said Michael Cox, to be paid out of any unappropriated monies of this commonwealth, as a full satisfaction and compensation for all costs and damages, which may have been sustained through the defect and invalidity of the deed of conveyance, made as aforesaid, to the said Joseph Terrance.

Approved February 19th, 1802. Recorded in L. B. No. 8, p. 49.

CHAPTER MMCOXLIII.

AN ACT TO ENABLE JAMES WICKERSHAM, SAMUEL GARRETSON AND EZEKIEL KIRK, TO CONVEY A CERTAIN PIECE OF LAND IN THE TOWNSHIP OF NEWBURY, YORK COUNTY.

Whereas, James Wickersham, Samuel Garretson and Ezekiel Kirk, trustees appointed by the monthly meeting of the society of the people called Quakers, held at Warrington meeting-house, in the township of Warrington, in the county of York, have by their petition to the legislature, represented that a certain tract of land was granted to John Garretson and Joseph Hutton (now deceased) by patent dated the twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in trust for the use of said society,
