CHAPTER MMDLI.

AN ACT VESTING IN THE HEIRS OF LEONARD STONEBURNER A TITLE TO A CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND.

Whereas Jacob Engle and Engle Bensell were, on the tenth day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, duly empowered by the devisees of the estate of Paul Engle, deceased, (excepting Levi Engle who was absent) by letter of attorney, bearing date above, to grant, bargain, sell and convey the real estates which they were entitled to by the will of the said Paul Engle, deceased: And whereas, in pursuance of the said letter of attorney, the said Jacob Engle and Engle Bensell did sell a certain tract of land called Engina, situate on the south side of Crooked creek, formerly in the county of Westmoreland, now in the county of Armstrong, bounded by lands surveyed in the names of Thomas York and Thomas Burd, containing three hundred and fifty-seven acres and three quarters of an acre with allowance, to Leonard Stoneburner: And whereas it appears by the settlement of the said attorneys accounts with the devisees aforesaid, that the price of fifty pounds was paid by Leonard Stoneburner aforesaid, for the said tract of land, and who has since died intestate, leaving issue four children, viz. Sarah Paris, Hester Woodrow, Mary Ruth and Ann Stoneburner, and that the said Sarah Paris has since deceased, having first, by her last will and testament, devised all her real estate unto George S. Bensell: And whereas no conveyance of the above tract of land was executed by the attorneys aforesaid to the said Leonard Stoneburner, and one of them, viz. Jacob Engle is now deceased, and the other, viz. Engle Bensell, in consequence of indisposition of mind, is disqualified to execute the same: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all the right, title, interest, claim and demand that Paul Engle aforesaid, in his life time had to the above named tract of land called Engina, (excepting one thirtieth part thereof which is reserved for the use and benefit of Levi Engle aforesaid, or his legal representatives) shall be, and the same is hereby vested in the said Hester Woodrow, Mary Rush, Ann Stoneburner and George S. Bensell, their heirs and assigns forever, in equal parts as tenants in common, and not as joint tenants, in as full a manner as the above named attorneys could, by any act or deed of conveyance, at any time, have legally done or effected.

Approved March 2, 1805. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 74.

CHAPTER MMDLII.

AN ACT FOR THE ELECTING AND APPOINTMENT OF CONSTABLES IN THE BOROUGHS OF READING AND LANCASTER.

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the electors, residing in the borough of Reading, in the county of Berks, shall, on the third Saturday of March, yearly, and every year hereafter, elect four suitable persons, being citizens of said borough, for the office of constable in addition to the usual number heretofore elected, and shall return the names of the persons so elected to the next general court of quarter sessions of the peace to be holden for the county of Berks, and the court shall appoint any two of them constables for the said borough, and the persons so elected and appointed shall, in case of refusal to serve, be subject to like penalties as by law are already imposed, and in case of any vacancy by death, removal or otherwise, the court shall appoint, in the usual manner, an-
