Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the board of property, upon application for that purpose by John Hughes, or his legal representatives, whose lands are ascertained to lie within the state of Virginia, shall liquidate the amount of the payment made by him for the lands as aforesaid, and certify the same to the receiver general, who shall thereupon deliver a certificate or certificates of such sum, with interest thereon from the time of payment, to the said John Hughes, and enter a credit in his book for the same, which may be transferred to any person or persons, and passed as credit in payment of arrears of former grants.

Approved March 2, 1805. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 79.

CHAPTER MMDLV.

AN ACT EMPOWERING THE COMMISSIONERS OF BEAVER AND BUTLER COUNTIES TO COLLECT CERTAIN ARREARAGES OF COUNTY TAXES.

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the commissioners of the counties of Beaver and Butler respectively, and their successors in office, shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to recover and collect the arrearages of taxes due on unseated lands in said counties, which taxes remained unpaid at the time of their organization, and, if necessary, to proceed and sell the said lands, or any part of them respectively, to discharge the taxes due as aforesaid; subject to the rules, regulations and restrictions provided by an act of assembly, passed April the third, one thousand eight hundred and four,⁽¹⁾ entitled, "An act directing the mode of selling unseated lands for taxes;" which sales, thus made and conducted, and the titles made by virtue of the same, shall be valid in law to all intents and purposes.

Approved March, 1805. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 80.

CHAPTER MMDLVI.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF ROBINA DUNLAP.

Whereas it has been represented to the Legislature, that Robina Dunlap, late of Dauphin county, (now of Mifflin county) widow of John Dunlap, deceased, who was killed in our revolutionary war, at the battle of Chestnut-hill, in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, when in the service of the United States, under captain James Crouch, and that the court of Dauphin county, in pursuance of an act of assembly in such case made and provided, did grant to the said Robina Dunlap, as the relict of the said John Dunlap, twenty-five shillings per month, as a pension, to commence and be payable from and after the twenty-first day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, being about the time that Dauphin county was organized: And whereas there is a lapse of time, to wit; from the death of the said John Dunlap, until the said twenty-first of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, the time the said county was organized, for which Robina Dunlap has not received such pay as is by law made and provided, which, it is presumed, the said court did not feel themselves authorized to allow, as their power could not be extended farther back than the organization of said county: And whereas, in consideration of the services her deceased husband rendered his country, it would be proper to grant the said Robina Dunlap the relief she prays for: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted
