CHAPTER MMDLVI.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF ROBINA DUNLAP.

Whereas it has been represented to the Legislature, that Robina Dunlap, late of Dauphin county, (now of Mifflin county) widow of John Dunlap, deceased, who was killed in our revolutionary war, at the battle of Chestnut-hill, in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, when in the service of the United States, under captain James Crouch, and that the court of Dauphin county, in pursuance of an act of assembly in such case made and provided, did grant to the said Robina Dunlap, as the relict of the said John Dunlap, twenty-five shillings per month, as a pension, to commence and be payable from and after the twenty-first day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, being about the time that Dauphin county was organized: And whereas there is a lapse of time, to wit; from the death of the said John Dunlap, until the said twenty-first of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, the time the said county was organized, for which Robina Dunlap has not received such pay as is by law made and provided, which, it is presumed, the said court did not feel themselves authorized to allow, as their power could not be extended farther back than the organization of said county: And whereas, in consideration of the services her deceased husband rendered his country, it would be proper to grant the said Robina Dunlap the relief she prays for: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the accounting officers be, and they are hereby directed to settle the accounts of the said Robina Dunlap, at the rate of three dollars thirty-three cents a month, from the fourth day of December, in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, until the twenty-first day of September, in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, together with lawful interest thereon; and the amount shall be paid out of any unappropriated monies in the treasury of this commonwealth, on a warrant to be drawn by the governor in favor of the said Robina Dunlap, or her legal representative.

Approved March 2, 1805. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 80.

CHAPTER MMLVII.

AN ACT DIRECTING THE SALE OF CERTAIN TOWN LOTS IN THE TOWN OF BEAVER, AND OTHER LAND ADJACENT THERETO.

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John Laurence, of the borough of Beaver, Samuel Wilson and David Potter, of the county of Beaver, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of, at public sale, on or before the second Wednesday of June next, one-fourth of the town lots, the property of this commonwealth, in the town of Beaver, in the county of Beaver, excepting those heretofore reserved for public uses; and also to sell, as aforesaid, one fourth of the reserved tract of land at the mouth of Big Beaver Creek; to be sold in lots of not less than five or more than ten acres each, in such manner as to them, or a majority of them, may appear to be most advantageous to the commonwealth; public notice of the said sale being previously given, at least six weeks before the day of sale, in one newspaper printed in Philadelphia, one in Washington, and one in Pittsburgh; and on the day appointed for the sale of the said lots, the
