CHAPTER MMDLXVIII.

A SUPPLEMENT TO AN ACT, ENTITLED, "AN ACT TO ERECT PARTS OF LYCOMING, HUNTINGDON AND SOMERSET COUNTIES INTO SEPARATE COUNTY DISTRICTS." (1).

Whereas it hath been represented to the legislature, that doubts are entertained of the power and authority of the commissioners of Centre county, to levy and assess taxes within the county districts of Clearfield and M'Kean, which were, by the act⁽¹⁾ to which this is a supplement, annexed to Centre county; and as it has been represented that divers costs and expenses have accrued, and are likely to accrue, from the reward allowed for killing of wolves, the laying out and improving roads, bills of prosecution, &c. within said county districts, and which of right ought to be discharged by a tax drawn from said county districts: For remedy whereof,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the power and authority of the commissioners and other county officers of Centre county, shall extend over and be as full and effectual, to all intents and purposes, over and within the county districts of Clearfield and M'Kean, as at this time it is or ought to be in and over the county of Centre, and the inhabitants of the county districts of Clearfield and M'Kean, so long as they shall remain annexed to Centre county, shall, in common with the inhabitants of the said county of Centre, exercise and enjoy similar and equal rights and privileges, and shall be subject to similar regulations, in as full and ample a manner as if they now were a component part of Centre county.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners and treasurer of Centre county to keep a separate and distinct account of the monies raised and collected from the county districts of Clearfield and M'Kean respectively, and shall therefrom pay and discharge all and singular the costs and expenses of levying, assessing and collecting the same, costs of prosecution chargeable to the county, arising from suits instituted against persons within the said county districts, and all rewards for killing wolves and other animals of prey, and also all costs and expenses of laying out, opening and improving roads, as well as other costs and expenses incidental to the said county districts, and the remainder or surplus thereof shall remain for the use of the county district in which it shall have been raised.

Section III. (Section III, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the recorder of deeds for Centre county to provide a separate book, or books, for the purpose of recording therein the deeds of lands lying within each of the said county districts, and shall therein enter and record all and every such deed or deeds as shall come to his hands to be recorded, and shall deliver over said books to the recorders of deeds of Clearfield and M'Kean counties respectively when such recorders shall or may be appointed and apply for the same.

Section IV. (Section IV, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the county of Clearfield shall be an election district, and the electors thereof shall hold their general elections at the house of Benjamin Jordan in said district, and shall be entitled to vote for members of the federal and state legislatures, sheriffs, commissioners, and other county officers for Centre county.

Approved March 14, 1805. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 105.

CHAPTER MMDLXIX.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF FREDERICK FULTZ.

Whereas it has been represented to the legislature, that Frederick Fultz, now an inhabitant of Chester county, entered the service of his country for three years, in the revolutionary war, on the twelfth day of February, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, under the command of Captain John Dennis, in colonel John Patton's regiment of foot; that he was taken prisoner on the twenty-fifth day of April, in the same year, and held in captivity in New York sugar-house near three years; that he was wounded in the service and lost one of his eyes in the time of captivity; that application for his pay was made to the comptroller general on the fourteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and being informed that he was barred by the act of limitation, that he
