CHAPTER MMDLXXII.

AN ACT REGULATING AND CONTINUING THE DISTRIBUTION OF DONATION LANDS.

Whereas it appears, that sundry lots of donation lands have lately been drawn and patented, which lots are situate within the easternmost part of the second donation district commonly called the Struck district, which were heretofore left out of the wheel by the late supreme executive council on the report of their agent, General William Irvine, that said lands were unfit for cultivation: And whereas it appears that the aforesaid Struck district has been settled under the act of the third day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, entitled "An act for the sale of the vacant lands within this Commonwealth,"⁽¹⁾ and in many instances large and valuable improvements have been made thereon: And whereas the drawing and patenting to the officers and soldiers the lots situate as aforesaid, will have a tendency to defeat the benevolent intentions of the legislature towards that meritorious class of citizens, and inevitably involve the patentees and actual settlers in disputes and expensive lawsuits: To prevent those inconveniences,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the land officers to take out of the wheel all tickets for donation lots, situate in the easternmost part of the second donation
