CHAPTER MMDCL.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF THE HEIRS OF JOHN JACOB HIRLEMAN, DECEASED.

Whereas it appears that John Jacob Hirleman died in the city of Philadelphia, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three intestate, leaving some property which for want of known heirs or kindred was escheated to the commonwealth, and in consequence thereof, the net sum of one hundred and six pounds eight shillings and two pence was paid into the state treasury on the twenty-eighth day of December in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five: And whereas it now appears that at the time of the decease of the said John Jacob Hirleman, he had five brothers and two sisters, viz. John Michael Hirleman, John Henry Hirleman, Eve Dorothea Greiss, Catharine Salome Bickler, John Hirleman, John Philip Hirleman, and John Stephen Hirleman, who are still living and resident in Alsace, in the department of the Lower Rhine, in the Republic of France, who by their attorney Peter Ulrich, have prayed for restitution of the money paid into the treasury as aforesaid: And whereas the principles of justice and equity, require that the money so received with interest thereon, should be refunded to the said heirs: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the governor be, and he is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, in favor of Peter Ulrich, attorney in fact to the heirs of John Jacob Hirleman, deceased, for the sum of two hundred and eighty-three dollars and seventy-five cents, with lawful interest thereon from the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

Approved February 24, 1806. Recorded in L. B. No. 10, p. 246.
