lege, that an excellent building for the purpose aforesaid, is erected and nearly finished, but the funds of the institution being encumbered with the mortgage aforesaid, will not enable the trustees to complete said building, nor to provide suitable teachers in said college: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That as soon as the corporation of Dickinson College shall in due form of law have mortgaged to the governor of this commonwealth, five thousand acres of the land heretofore granted to the said college, securing the payment of the six thousand dollars heretofore loaned to the corporation aforesaid, within five years after the passing of this act, and shall have deposited the same with the secretary of this commonwealth, it shall then, and in that case, be the duty of the secretary to enter satisfaction on the mortgage heretofore given, and the said corporation shall have full power and authority to farm let, or otherwise dispose of the residue of their lands in such way and manner, as may be most beneficial for said institution.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in addition to the sum aforesaid granted, there is hereby loaned to the trustees of Dickinson College, the further sum of four thousand dollars, free of interest for five years from the passing of this act, to be applied to the purchase of suitable books and philosophical apparatus for the use of the said institution, out of the arrearages of state taxes due from the county of Cumberland, which sum so loaned shall nevertheless be subject to, and held under the same mortgage for securing the payment thereof to the commonwealth, as the sum of six thousand dollars aforesaid, and the treasurer of said county, is hereby directed to pay said sum out of any monies, that now is or that may hereafter come into his hands of the arrearages of taxes aforesaid, and the monies so paid shall be a credit to said county, on the settlement of the arrearages aforesaid.
