CHAPTER MMMXIV.

AN ACT RELATING TO THE ASSOCIATION OF INDIVIDUALS FOR THE PURPOSE OF BANKING.

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if any association of citizens or others shall hereafter be formed within this commonwealth for the purposes of banking or of borrowing or loaning money in any manner or upon any terms whatever, each and every person becoming a member of such association or interested therein by subscription, contribution, to stock or agreement to participate in profit or otherwise, and his assigns shall be individually and personally liable for the debts and engagements of such association in like manner, and to the same extent, as if he, she or they had personally contracted such debt or made such engagement, any agreement of such association with their creditors or others, or any declaration by them in any manner made to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that no member of any such association or person interested therein, shall be answerable for any debts contracted or engagements made after his interest in such association shall have ceased, but only for debts contracted or engagements made during the time his interest or that of those under and through whom he claims existed.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no company incorporated by the laws of any other of the United States shall be permitted to establish within this commonwealth any banking house or office of discount and deposit, and all and every person or persons who shall in violation of this act be concerned in any such establishment, on conviction thereof in any court of justice within this State, shall for every such offense, forfeit and pay for the use of the same, the sum of two thousand dollars, and the private estates of such person or persons offending as aforesaid, shall be liable for the payment of such forfeiture.⁽¹⁾
